DASHED TO DEATH.

Barney Oldfield's Auto Smashes Into Fence---Kills Two.

Fatality Attends World's Fair Automobile Speed Contest Sunday.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—Blinded by the dust thrown by another swiftly moving machine, Barney Oldfield, of Cleveland, Ohio, lost control of his machine in a false start of the fifth event of the World's Fair automobile speed contest Sunday and, crashing through the outer fence of the course, instantly killed John Scott, a watchman employed at the park, and inflicted injuries upon Nathan Montgomery, a negro, from which he died a few hours later. Oldfield was painfully injured and his machine completely demolished.

The accident occurred after a false start. The flagman vainly attempted to signal Oldfield and Webb, who were leading, that the start was not allowed, but they did not see his flag and continued around the course at a high rate of speed.

Shortly after passing the first turn of the mile track, Webb secured the lead by a narrow margin and the men were in a relatively same position when passing the three-quarter pole. In making the turn, Webb's machine skidded and raised a blinding cloud of dust that completely blinded Oldfield and half-smothered him.

Not being able to see that he had completed the turn, Oldfield continued his course and crashed though the fence. When Oldfield failed to appear after Webb had emerged from the dust there was considerable excitement, but as it was announced that he was not seriously injured and shortly afterwards was driving to the clubhouse in an automobile, it was not generally known that the accident had resulted fatally.

FARMER SHOT IN DAVIESS.

Had a Difference With a Neighbor Over a Personal Matter and Shooting Followed.

Hiram Marksberry, one of the most prominent farmers in Daviess county, was shot and dangerously wounded Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock by Sam Kinmon, a tenant on Mr. Marksberry's farm near Pettit, says the Owensboro Messenger.

Marksberry's horse had got out and broke into Kinmon's cornfield. Kinmon caught the animal and tied it to a tree and Marksberry went after it. When Kinmon saw him coming he told him to go back or he would shoot him. Marksberry passed on and Kinmon fired. The entire lead of shot took effect in the lower part of the abdomen and legs, inflicting a very dangerous wound.

Kinmon was arrested by Constable Ashby and brought to the city. Drs Thorp and Westerfield attended the wounded man and picked over a hundred shot out of his body, besides many that could not get. They think that he has a chance to recover but regard his wound as very serious.

Who's Been Robbed?

(Lexington Leader.)
The Democratic platform says: "We denounce Protectionism as a robbery." This is certainly startling if true. But who has been robbed?

Not the farmer, who is getting a billion dollars more a year for his products than under Free Trade; whose animals are worth a billion dollars more than under Free Trade; who has paid off his mortgages, who has implements, and who has money to burn instead of corn, as was the case under Free Trade.

No, the farmer has not been robbed and the farmers and their families constitute 40 per cent. of all our people.

Not the wage earners in manufacturing industries, who have lived so well and added a billion dollars to their savings since 1897, who have increased their insurance, who have paid for their homes, who have worked less hours and earned more money than ever before. No, the wage earner has not been robbed.

Not the railroad employees, who are getting a quarter of a billion dollars more wages a year now than under Free Trade.

Not the railroad owners, who are getting twice the dividends and whose stock is worth about the double what it was under Free Trade.

Not the professional man, who is earning twice as much, and getting it. He did not get it even though he earned it under Free Trade.

Not the wives and daughters, who live well and dress well when the husbands and fathers are fully employed at high wages.

Not the boys, who are getting a good education.

Not the general public laborers, who are working less hours and getting higher wages than ever before.

Not the old soldiers, nor the present army, nor the men who man the ships.

No, there is no one being robbed except the pawnbroker and the democrats who want a job. There is where the robbery comes in, and there is where it hurts. The would-be cabinet officers and heads of departments and consuls, the would-be office holder of any and every description, he thinks he is being robbed, and yet he can make more money in his business and get more wages for his work than he could under Free Trade. He is robbed not of work and income, but of a position he cannot be trusted to fill. That is all the robbery there is to Protection.

MOB'S WORK.

Joe Bumpas Shot, Strangled and Body Thrown Into River.

Hickman, Ky., Aug. 30.—Joe Bumpas, a negro, was taken from jail here this morning before daylight, strangled to death and his body thrown in the river.

About two o'clock this morning the mob appeared at the jail, and pretending they had a prisoner, gained admission. When they got in the jail they told the jailer they had come for Joe Bumpas, who was arrested Monday afternoon for an assault on Catherine Clay, a white girl fifteen years of age. When they saw Bumpas they began shouting at him and a rope was tied around his neck. He was then dragged to the river, and tying the rope to a flatboat, threw his body into the river. The boat was then cut loose and floated off down the stream. The men then came back and got in buggies and on horses and went away.

Over $2,000 will be given away in Premiums at the Ohio County Fair this year. See a catalogue.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

A Kentucky Girl Went to St. Louis to Wed--Was Disappointed by Lover.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 31.—Despondent because she thought that her sweetheart was not going to marry her, Miss Agnes Vowells, twenty-one years of age, of Covington, Ky., tried to end her life last night by swallowing laudanum. She was taken to the City Hospital, where her condition was pronounced serious.

Miss Vowells came to St. Louis about two weeks ago from Kentucky for the sole purpose of marrying George Phillips, whose brother married her sister. But when she arrived in the city Phillips decided to postpone the wedding for a few days so that he might set things in better shape, he said. When the appointed time came again he again postponed the wedding until yesterday, and when Miss Vowells got in readiness yesterday he declared that he had changed his mind and would never marry. Miss Vowells immediately went to the home of her sister and swallowed the poison.

BACKACHE AND DIZZINESS.

Most of the Ailments peculiar to the Female Sex are Due to Catarrh of Pelvic Organs.

99 Eleventh Street,
Milwaukee, Wis.

"A short time ago I found my condition very serious, I had headaches, pains in the back, and frequent dizzy spells which grew worse every month. I tried two remedies before Peruna, and was discouraged when I took the first dose, but my courage soon returned. In less than two months my health was restored."—Mrs. M. Brickner.

The reason of so many failures to cure cases similar to the above is the fact that diseases peculiar to the female sex are commonly recognized as being caused by catarrh. Catarrh of one organ is exactly the same as catarrh of any other organ. What will cure catarrh of the head will also cure catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures these cases simply because it cures the catarrh.

If you have catarrh write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Ross. She is known for her kind and courteous demeanor and her charming personality has made her quite a favorite with many friends.

TAGGART TELLS TRUTH.

No Hope Of Parker's Election
Says the Chairman.

Assert Democratic Chairman
Concedes Defeat of the National Ticket.

Judge Parker has heard something which caused him to shiver worse than when he plunged into the cold mountain stream in New England a few days ago. According to a man of prominence, who recently visited Esopus, Judge Parker has been learning the real truth about the political situation. The cold facts were told by him to Taggart the chairman of the Democratic national committee, and the information imparted was that the inside estimate of the probably electoral vote gives Judge Parker 238 or 239 short of a majority; that a liberal estimate of further possibilities brings the total up to only 231, still leaving him 8 votes shy.

It is related that Judge Parker was astounded when national managers presented the cold facts to him in figures and intimated that nothing less than a political revolution could save the ticket without holding out any encouragement as to the probability of a revolution, no signs of which have developed on the horizon. The news Judge Parker received was different from the hot-air talk that have been given him by many others who have called on him. Champ Clark is said to have filled the judge's head with an impression that the whole middle West and the far West was all in with Democratic sentiment; that Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Kansas were good fighting ground; that Nebraska, Colorado and Montana were safely Democratic. When told that the normal chances were not only against him, but that it would be practically a political miracle if he were elected, the "sage of Esopus" could hardly believe his ears.

STATES CLAIMED BY DEMOCRATS.
The 208 votes which the chairman of the national committee is alleged to have promised Judge Parker comprised the solid South, 151; New York, 39; West Virginia, 7; Nevada, 3; and Maryland, 8. There was a possibility of increasing this by the addition of New Jersey, 12; Connecticut, 7; and Rhode Island, 4, making a total of 231 and still leaving eight short. This is said to have been the best estimate the Democratic managers could make for the candidate. It includes New Jersey and Connecticut, which the Republicans consider absolutely safe Republican States and also New York, which the Republicans do not by any means concede.

Government Printing Office Installs Type Setting Machines.

The Government Printing Office is installing fifty type setting machines. The Government office is perhaps the first to bring once to adopt the latest method in typesetting. They did so because the installation of machines believing they previously had not been brought to such perfection that they could readily handle the intricate Government work.

The machines have now been put in three divisions of the office and proved a success and it is likely other machines will be ordered. The machine will first be used in the Job Division, Gazette division and on the Congressional Record, where the nature of the work is almost the same as that in daily newspaper offices. The Congressional Library division will also be supplied with machines at once.

The Government Printing Office employs about 1,200 printers, increasing this number to about 1,500 during the congressional session. The great increase in the amount of work has made it imperative to largely increase the force or to put in typesetting machines. It is thought the machine will not cause any of the printers now employed in the office to lose their positions.

Care of Children's Ears.

In the proper care of the ears in childhood two things have to be considered—the local conditions of the ears and, what is equally important, the general state of the child's health. As to the care of the ear itself, it must always be remembered that the hearing apparatus is a piece of very delicate mechanism, no more suited to rough treatment than is the ball of the eye. It can be easily injured by the introduction of a foreign body or by a blow from the outside. Small children sometimes push things into their ears by way of experiment. In this case the child's guardians should keep perfectly cool, and send for a physician at once. The child must not be shaken and punished, until the object is removed, and above all the nurse or mother should not grope for it with a hairpin or tweezers, for that is the way to push it further in, or to wound or even rupture the delicate drum membrane—an accident which may be followed by complete deafness, and even death, should a serious inflammation ensue.

There is perhaps one exception to this rule of leaving a foreign body alone until the doctor comes. Occasionally insects fly into the ear, and cause great anguish by buzzing and fluttering about. They can be speedily disposed of by dropping a little sweet oil or luke warm salt water.

As to injury from the outside, children should be carefully guarded against any games which include loud shouting directly into the ear, and it is surely needless to add that pulling the ears and, above all, boxing the ears as a form of punishment should be held a criminal offense. It may induce partial and temporary deafness, complete deafness and even death, and it is indignantly by a teacher should be followed by arrest and public rebuke.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says S. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind. Presidential Succession.

(Troy Times.) By nominating an octogenarian for Vice President the Democratic party has virtually registered its approval of the one-time prevalent opinion that the Vice Presidency is a sinecure, fit for men who have outlived their political usefulness. The Republican party thinks differently, and has nominated a United States Senator known to the country and in the prime of life.

Can the Democratic politicians, who are extremely fond of referring to our early National history, be ignorant of the number of Vice Presidents who have through natural and unnatural causes been inducted into the highest office of the land?

Has the party of opposition drifted so far from historic ideals as to forget that our early political chronicles mention as Vice Presidents men high in the councils of state, whose future was not behind them? What means this innovation? Again, was it too many years ago for recollection when the Presidential succession law was passed?

Did not Congress at that time recognize the possibility of the death in office of both President and Vice President and provide that the Secretary of State should be next in the order of succession?

In the unhappy event of Democrat success at the polls a President and Vice President would be chosen who might fail to survive their terms of office. The office would then fall to the Secretary of State; in other words, to David B. Hill. By any possibility should David B. have by accident what he can not gain by vote?

The Man McKinley Wanted.

(Butcherford Circular, in reports Weekly.) It is related that during the fall of 1899 the late President McKinley was traveling on a railroad train through Northern Ohio. Several of the men who were in his confidence were about him, and the conversation naturally turned toward the Philippines, which were just then a very prominent place on the map. Aguinaldo's army and organized government had disappeared before the fierce attack of MacArthur and Lawton, but had left in their track a condition of discontent and disorder far more difficult to handle.

"If I had the right man," said

President McKinley, "I should send him there now and put as much of a civilized government right in under the military as the situation could stand. I should give them something to show for our promises to them, even if it were a risk."

In his enthusiasm he went on to describe the man.

"For," he said, "it is a question of the man. He must be a law student, a law maker, a law executor and a jurist. He must be young enough to take a big gamble and to be adaptable enough to meet many a situation we can not foresee. He must be old enough to be well known in America and to have inspired confidence in a large way. He must be magnetic and a model in his private life. Moreover, he should be personally known to me, so that I can be sure of all these things."

Now, the gods who watch over such things had arranged that the youngest Judge and best-known lawyer of his years in the United States had just left that train, and they must also have judged the elbow of a certain adviser in ordinary.

"Perhaps you don't know," he suggested, "that von have described your young friend, Judge Taft."

The President saw it just that way, and before the train reached the next station he had promised that if Mr. Taft would accept the charge of it another commission would be sent to the Philippines.

WOMAN LIVES AS MAN.

Masquerades Successfully for Fifty Years.

Marries Two Wives and Lives Happy With Both--Leads a Strenuous Life.

Catherine Coome, who was recently released from a London police court on the bond of a Chicago news paper man, has been living a man's strenuous life in man's clothes for so years.

Only once before has Coome's secret ever been discovered, though she has twice been "married" in church to other women, and has met with many adventures in many lands, while in man's clothes. That was about four years ago.

It was at a table in a crowded restaurant that Coome in her simple, gentle way, gave the following sketch of a long and amazing life:

"I was born," she said, "in 1836. My father was a man of means. Before I was sixteen I married my first cousin, Percival Coome. He treated me so brutally that one day I made up my mind to run away altogether. But what could I do? If only I were a man, I thought, I could hide myself securely from him and get work. It seemed a good idea, so I started off to Birmingham. There I took a room, paying the money for it in advance, and cautiously bought men's clothes at different shops.

"I went to Gloucester to look for work. There, outside of a shipping office, I saw an advertisement for a captain's clerk. In I went and offered my services. I was quite a bright-looking lad, and to my joy they took me on. For three years and a half I sailed with Capt. Peannie in the Mediterranean and Adriatic. When my captain's wife died I gave up the sea and apprenticed myself to a house painter at a village near Frome, in Somerset. At the end of my time I came up to London and worked two years, and later worked at my trade at Huddersfield for 15 years. Before I went I married the girl I had been courting for four years. She died four years later.

"At Huddersfield I married again, this time a Miss Peters, a dressmaker, whose parents lived in Jersey. We were married for 22 years, and I do not believe a couple were ever so happy as we were. Incredible as it may seem, I believe that she never guessed I was a woman. After I had been in Huddersfield for fifteen years I came up to London. I met with several accidents, and finally broke three ribs. Shortly after that my second wife died.

"At last I was driven to East Ham workhouse. There they found out I was a woman because I hit one of the men who wanted to strip me for bathing. I have come out three times since and got work. But three times I have met with accidents and have had to go back. I had only been out an hour the other morning when, near Elbury bridge, some man pointed me out to a policeman as a woman in man's clothes. So I was taken up for being drunk."

This is, in brief, the life story of Catherine Coome.

Is Your Clock Fast?

It is a common thing to find the clocks in nine out of ten households either fifteen minutes or half an hour fast, and should you happen to be in a hurry or mention the fact that you have to be going, you are at once reassured of the fact that you have no cause to hurry, as the clock is so much ahead of the time.

Has it ever occurred to you why clocks are usually put ahead? Some physicians have said it is due to laziness, for it is such a satisfaction to the lazy man to find when he has to get up at 7 in the morning and it is half-closed eyes to look at the clock that it is a half-hour fast, and he has so much more time to doze, with the result that he oversleeps himself anyhow and misses his train.

Said a Washington street watchmaker when asked about the subject:

"Yes, it is a peculiar thing with most people to put their clocks fast, and while there may be some satisfaction in it when it comes to dozing a little longer, there is really no advantage in it, for when you wake up, say at 6, and glance at the clock, and it registers 6:30, the fact remains that it is a half-hour fast. While this may make you feel easier, knowing that you still have thirty minutes to doze I confess I don't see much advantage in it."

"Why not have the clock right? It is the same thing in the end."

"Suppose railroads were to put this into practice, how many trains do you think people would miss thereby? This putting clocks fast is really only a pleasant form of deception, which people like to practice on themselves, but it does more harm than good."

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

W. corner of block 21; thence with a line of lot sold to Basil Stewart (it being the west boundary of said lot) north 200 feet to the north-west corner of said block 21; thence with a line of First Street E. 100 feet to the corner of lot sold J. W. Ragland in 1892; thence with the same S. 95 feet to his corner; thence again with the same E. 100 feet to Ragland's corner in H. P. M. E. McClelland, Esq., Merchant, Gravel Hill, Alton, was confined to room and bed for some time with indigestion and female trouble. Was unable at times to walk across the room. Went to two good doctors, as I thought highly of them, but neither did her good. Afterward he decided to write to Dr. Pierce for advice. I thought it no wise as I was sure she would be buried before she could receive an answer. She did receive an answer, however, and I could see that she was some better by the time she had taken the third dose. We continued the use of the medicine quite a while and now she does all the housework, and stood the examinations for life insurance all O. K. Any one who so wishes may write to me at my place of abode."

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health, by curing the local womanly diseases which are generally responsible for the failure of the general health. A woman's entire being is centered in her womanliness. When the delicate womanly organism is attacked by disease; when there is irregularity or disagreeable drain; when inflammation or ulceration occurs; when the general health will reflect the progress of disease, in increasing weakness, nervousness, backache, headache, loss of appetite and sleeplessness.

So sure is it of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhea, Female weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

St. Clair, and the residue, if any, will be applied to the debt, interest and cost of S. A. Anderson, Adm'r. vs. John A. St. Clair.

The sale will be made on a credit of three months, bond with approved security required, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from day of sale, having the force and effect of a sale bond.

A Power For Good.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are De-Witt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one, small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Woman.

A pretty woman is one of the institutions of the country—an angel in dry goods and glory. She makes sunshine, blue sky and happiness wherever she goes. Her path is one of delicious roses, perfume and beauty. She is a sweet poem, written in curlics and choice calico, and good principles. Men stand up before her as so many admiration points, to

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If you do not send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ROCHELLE, GA., Jan. 20, 1902.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 per cent better.

welt into cream and then butter. Her words float round the ear like music, birds of Paradise, or the perfumes of the Sabbath bells. Without her society would lose its truest attraction the church its finest reliance, and young men the very best comforters and companions. Her influence and generosity restrain the vicious and strengthen the faint-hearted. Whenever you find the virtuous woman you find also fireside bouquets, clean clothes, order, good living, gentle hearts, music, light and modern institutions generally. She is the flower of humanity and her aspiration is the breath of heaven.

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and rundown limbs and organs of the body. Kodul Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Street Lamps in Sahara.

The Sahara desert lighted by acetylene street lamps is a novel conception at which, says the New York Globe, the mind hesitates. Yet that is what the traveler would see, thanks to the ingenuity of Commandant Pu-jat, of the French army, should he visit the oasis of Tougoart in the far south of Algeria. Tougoart was remarkably unhealthful, but the commandant, by diligent sanitary work, has overcome that trouble. To make the place more attractive and pleasant for his garrison he has mounted large acetylene lamps high on the stems of gigantic palm trees which shade the market place, and thus has given this mid-Sahara camping place quite the appearance, by night, of an American village.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quantity too rich sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of early digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. Catch Crabs With Crabs.

[Philadelphia Press.]
They were sitting in the general store in the seashore resort of Avalon telling the small Jersey fish stories. It was Ezra Cresse's turn, and he spun the following yarn:

"Some springs ago the crabs were scarce on account of the hard winter. Every summer I make a business of shipping crabs to the city, but the spring I speak of it seems as though all the crabs had died. You know that the ice kills the crabs and those what's left alive always keep in deep water the following summer. Well, I tried my best to get some crabs. I went along the bank of the creek and I tramped around to all the salt ponds on the meadows. But it wasn't any use. Finally I thought I'd try a new scheme. So I got a couple of large crabs and tied a long wire about their shells. Then I took them to where the creek runs into the sound and anchored each crab in the water. After that I sunk several large pieces of meat.

"Next day," continued Cresse. "I went to my decoys and caught 300 crabs."

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT.
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
OF NEW YORK

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.
OF INDIANA

FOR CONGRESS.
DR. BEN L. BRUNER.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce JAMES L. MORTON as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

IS ROOSEVELT UNSAFE?

Recognizing that they have no issue that will appeal to the people in the present campaign, the Democrats propose to lead a vicious attack on President Roosevelt, the Republican candidate. They declare that he is unsafe. Unlike their candidate he has convictions and is not afraid to express them and act upon them. Everybody knows just where he stands and what he thinks about all important questions that may come to him for action.

But few candidates for the Presidency have been more thoroughly tried and are more fully known by the American people than Theodore Roosevelt. In 1881 at the age of 23 he was elected a member of the New York Legislature and was re-elected in 1882 and 1883. He was a delegate to the National convention in 1884; was appointed a member of the United States Civil Service Commission in 1889, and in 1895 was made President of the New York Police Board. In 1897 he was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and the following year resigned to become Lieutenant-Colonel of the First Volunteer Cavalry, in the Spanish-American war and was soon promoted to the rank of Colonel of the same regiment. In the autumn of the same year, after being mustered out, he was elected Governor of New York; and in November of 1900 he was elected Vice President of the United States and succeeded to the Presidency September 14, 1901.

Thus for 23 years he has been constantly before the people in positions of trust and responsibility and not a single spot or blemish on his character or integrity has ever been charged. He has been in the light of public observation for almost a quarter of a century and has stood the test. He is one of the best types of courageous, vigorous American manhood, proud of his country and devoted to the best interests of the whole nation.

DEMOCRATIC CONSISTENCY.
Examine the following declarations of Democracy. If you like the kind of consistency therein contained you are rightfully in the Parker camp.

1900.

"We are unalterably opposed to mono-metallism, which has locked fast the prosperity of an industrial people in the paralysis of hard times. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the present legal ratio of sixteen to one, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation."—From the platform adopted by the Democratic party in 1896 at Chicago and reaffirmed in 1900 at Kansas City.

"I regard the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention to-day shall be ratified by the people".—Telegram of Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for President, sent to the Democratic national convention of 1904. After the reading of this telegram Ollie James said Kentucky would go Republican by 100,000.

CHAMP CLARK's reminder to Candidate Parker, that the party and not the man rules, was timely. It blights the hopes of those who have thought that Parker could be bigger than his party if elected President. It leaves the free trade and free soup record of the party looking the voter square in the face.

The first qualification of a Democratic campaign orator is to be able to prove that Uncle Henry Davis will kick a hole through the dashboard without any provocation.

THE Republican County Committee has been called to meet in Hartford next Saturday. Every member should attend as there is important business to be transacted.

REVENUE reports show that the United States government collected $266,330 from the sale of revenue stamps placed on cigarettes during the month of July.

CANDIDATE PARKER has been at work on his letter of acceptance about fifteen days. It requires him quite a while to select the exact words to say nothing.

DAVID B. HILL announces that he will retire from politics next January. The date for Parker's retirement has previously been fixed for November.

WHENEVER they want to locate a mine at Port Arthur the Russians send out a warship. Then they mark the place where the ship blew up.

IT is a fact beyond question that so long as Grandpa Davis continues to dance, the Democratic campaign treasurer cannot pull his leg.

VOTERS of incorporated towns should not forget that October the 4th is the day for registration.

IF YOU live in an incorporated town you can't vote in November unless you register.

A GREAT many people are like whiskers. They live on cheek.

HISTORY is a standing rebuke to Democratic promises.

A Remarkable Document.

Hartford, Ky., August 24, 1904
Pursuant to request of my husband I hereby give up, release and deliver to A. L. Crume, administrator of Samuel Mitchell, property sufficient to pay all debts owing by my husband and ask that he sell enough of said property set aside to me to pay said demands. JOSIE MITCHELL.

The above brief instrument of writing was executed, as will be observed by the widow, of the late Samuel Mitchell and by it she gives up property that she sorely needs herself, that her deceased husband's debts may be paid. Such a spirit should be commanded by every true American citizen for it is of such that true citizenry is composed.

The biggest battle of the war between Russia and Japan is in progress near Liao Yang and may continue for several days. The armies are equally matched in point of numbers and it is estimated at St. Petersburg that about 400,000 men are engaged in the conflict, which is generally referred to as the decisive battle of the war.

The official news tells little of the strategic situation, and there is no estimate of the casualties. There has been desperate fighting on the southern center of the Russian forces, and the Japanese seem to be endavoring to turn the Russian right flank. The fighting on the west is said to have approached within three miles of Liao Yang. Citizens of that town are watching the battle from towers and house tops.

Large employers of labor in Chicago regard the stock yard strike as approaching an early collapse, are said to be preparing for an organized movement against union labor. The closing down of large industrial concerns is believed to be a part of the plan to wrest Chicago from its position as the stronghold of organized labor in the United States.

Don't fail to see Ajax, the famous high-diver, at the Ohio County Fair this year. He performs a thrilling feat.

Early Nominations Probable.

Among the aspirants for nomination for the various county officers, and Republicans in general, there seems to be a universal desire to have the party name its standard bearers at an early date. In many of the neighboring counties conventions and primary elections have already been called. The members of the Republican Executive Committee have been called to meet here next Saturday, and at this meeting they will, no doubt, take some action with reference to the time and manner of nominating candidates for the various county offices to be elected next year.

Whatever the committee sees fit to do will meet the approbation of the party as its personnel represents the best there is in the organization.

The Premium list of the Ohio County Fair has been doubled this year. This means something.

Given Robert Mathley At Owensboro Wednesday.

to marry him and she had refused. She lived with his mother for a time and alleged before her death that the reason she left was on account of the cruelty of Mathley. While Mathley was at the Warren home talking to the girl James Gregson came in. He took a seat in the room with the couple. Suddenly without warning Mathley pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired a bullet into the body of Gregson. He then turned the weapon on the young woman and fired a bullet through her breast.

She fell to the floor dead. Gregson was mortally wounded. He crawled to the door and out in the yard. Mathley followed his victim, vowing he would end his life. He was prevented by two young men who were attracted by his shots. Gregson was removed to the hospital, where he died the following night. Mathley was arrested in the Warren house at the side of the dead girl, who was only seventeen years of age.

"Well, boys I've got to hang for it," said Mathley when taken back to the jail this morning. He was brought to the courtroom at 8 o'clock this morning to hear the verdict. When the verdict was announced the condemned man jerked as if he had been struck by some unseen object.

His eyes, which he allowed to remain half closed during the trial, opened wide.

ROCKPORT.

Aug. 31—Sam Reed, a Rockport darky, lost a silver watch and learned a lesson that he will not soon forget Tuesday. He, with several other negroes were at the depot when an excursion train bound for Louisville arrived. Reed entered conversation with one of the coons on the train and when he looked for his time-piece later, he discovered that it was missing.

Charley Brown, living in this country, came to Rockport last Saturday tanked up on mean whisky and went to a picnic across the river. He became angry and drawing a pistol fired at the ground. He had no sooner done so than he was overpowered and his pistol taken from him. He then went to cross the river and because ferrymen Howard objected to the talk he was using before some ladies, he attempted to cut Howard's throat. Howard struck him over the head several times with a wagon spoke. Brown then left town and went to McHenry where, it is said, the marshal attempted to arrest him. Brown fired two shots at the marshal and in turn was shot at six times, one shot tearing a piece out of his coat sleeve.

For the first time in the history of Rockport a negro jury sat in the trial of a case here Saturday, and as a result the citizens of the city are very indignant over the matter. The case was that of Joe Short, a negro. Short and a young white boy had trouble and short procured a big butcher knife and returned to renew the fight. The knife was taken away from him and both were arrested. When the case came up, the white boy was fined 1 cent and cost which will amount to about $15. Short was also taken before the police judge and demanded a negro jury. This was granted and it was clearly shown that Short was guilty, but the jury dismissed him.

Several days ago arrangements were made to have about fifteen men from Rockport to go to the St. Louis fair on the police force. Suits were ordered and all were in high spirits until yesterday when a telegram came saying that they were not needed.

APPLES WORTH $10 A BITE.

Fruit From Zanzibar Is Perhaps the Rarest on Earth.

Of all fruits Zanzibar apples are perhaps the rarest. Dozens of trees together will only bear a few of these apples, and the time of picking them has to be carefully selected. They must be gathered just a month before they would ripen, otherwise they will quickly spoil.

These Zanzibar apples have reached the enormous price of $100 each. They are not large, probably containing ten bites at $10 a bite. The apples have to be specially ordered, for no caterer would ever dream of keeping them in stock.

Custard apples are another expensive luxury. They can be purchased at prices ranging from seventy-five cents to $25 each, according to quality, and, according to those whose judgment in such matters is considered to be absolutely correct, must be eaten with pepper and salt. Two of the most fashionable fruits in the winter months are muscat grapes and strawberries, and until the end of January the latter are beyond the reach of people of moderate means.

A member of Mrs. Astor's "600," not long since went into a well-known fruiter's in New York and offered $250 to the manager if he could provide enough strawberries for five people that evening. The manager undertook to deliver the fruit within seven hours, and then proceeded to wire forty different fruit gardens within sixty miles of the metropolis for strawberries. Seventeen gardens within sixty miles of the metropolis for strawberries. Seventeen gardens provided the required amount of strawberries, the remaining twenty-three not being able to produce a single one, and by 6:30 o'clock that evening the fruit was delivered at a cost of nearly $250 for each strawberry.

There are several persons in New York whose weekly bill for grapes at this season runs to never less than $100. They pay $5 a pound for the best muscat grapes and receive at least three pounds a day.

The manager of a well-known fruiter's establishment recently declared that many people who set high-priced fruit in the window will buy it just to see "what it tastes like," and in this way these "samplers," as they are called by the trade, are a considerable source of profit to many of the highclass fruiters. These samplers will cheerfully spend a dollar on an apple or a pear to enjoy the experience of eating such a luxury.

Runaway Team Stopped by Faith.

[From the Tribune.]

At the convention of Christian Scientists to-day testimony was given as to the success claimed for the science in preventing runaways. One incident was recounted to have occurred in Omaha last week.

Mrs. Wakeley testified that she believed a treatment for fear which she gave enabled Florence Fuller, a fourteen-year-old girl, to steer a team of frightened horses for two miles through the city without mishap. On the way the child gave a little frightened cry and looked directly into the eyes of Mrs. Wakeley, who says that she at once gave a treatment for fear.

Mrs. A. G. Beeson testified that she gave her horse which had become frightened at a passing automobile, a similar treatment and that within three blocks she had the frightened animal under complete control.

Poss the Dope!

From trustworthy persons come the rather remarkable statement of what lightning did at Herbert Roberts, on the old Cloverport road, near Camp's shop, on Saturday night, says the electricity editor of the Breckenridge Democratic. It stuck a clothes line, ran into the hen house was taking care of fifteen promising eggs. Her tail and wing feathers were burned off and the material of the nest was consumed; running down, the lightning tore up a shovel and a boom that were below the nest. Here it ceased and was heard of no more. The next day thirteen of the eggs hatched and five of the chickens had blisters on their backs.

Now let's have the facts of lightning peculiar doings in the Glendale neighborhood a few years ago.

Deafness Cannot be Cured By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is cured by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine case out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We have given away One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. S. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Do College Women Marry?

Two questions are very familiar to those who are interested in college training for women: the first is, "Does college unfit a woman for home life?" and the second, "Do college women marry?" The writer has often wondered whether the first question is urged upon the faculty of a man's college? The man's work for the home is different from the woman's but is it not quite as definite in its own way and as important that his training shall fit him for it? It is assumed that the broader his culture, the wider his horizon, the more will he be able to add to that which should be the center of his life, however manifold his outside interests. It is illogical to think that the contrary result is to be expected from the education of a woman, and experience always proves that logic is right. Discontent, lack of appreciation and inefficiency in the home are less often seen among college women than among those who have never been away from home and thus do not realize its full value. Certainly in no class of woman is the home instinct stronger than among those whose lives are spent largely in the college.

The Speechless Candidate.

Judge Parker has decided not to make any speeches during the campaign. The announcement is made on the authority of "an intimate associate" of the Judge and is made pleasurable, so that the public may be the better able to bear it.

First he gives out the preparatory statement that the Judge "has no faith in the utility of speech-making for its own sake." Then comes the more definite admission that he "will make no speeches anywhere for the mere purpose of appearing in any given locality." Finally he gives it out that "you may say with the utmost confidence that under no conditions will Judge Parker make any speech anywhere." In this way he lets the public know the worst, but in such a gradual way that it is spared the shock of an abrupt announcement.

No one ever expected Judge Parker to make any speeches. He had written the State platform without saying anything, he had sent his telegram to the St. Louis convention without saying anything and he had made his speech of acceptance without saying anything, and even if he had gone on the stump he would not have said anything, but for fear he might accidentally say something he has concluded not to go on the stump. Some of his admirers still claim that he will say something in his inaugural address—if he ever makes one.

This is the man whose admirers in every breath are hailing as "manly," "courageous," "outspoken" and "fearless." These terms applied to Judge Parker are like the names of the depots on a treeless prairie, every one of which is a "grove" or a "mount." The public is asked to accept an attractive name for an unattractive reality.

As for Judge Parker, he is the reverse of all that he is claimed to be. He is a political clod.

A Story of Webster.

On one occasion Daniel Webster was on his way to Washington and was compelled to proceed at night by stage from Baltimore. He had no traveling companion, and the driver had a sort of felon look, which produced an inconsiderable alarm in the senator. "I endeavored to tranquillize myself," said Mr. Webster, "and had partly succeeded when we reached the dark woods between Bladensburg and Washington, a proper scene for murder or outrage, and here, I confess, my courage again deserted me. Just then the driver turned to me and with a gruff voice inquired my name. I gave it to him. 'Where are you going?' said he. The reply was: 'To Washington. I am a senator.' Upon this the driver seized me frequently by the hand and exclaimed: 'How glad I am! I took you for a highwayman!'

WHIPPED AND SHOT.

Negro Recognized Three of His White Assailants.

Statesboro, Ga., Aug. 29.—Sebastian McBride, a negro man living near Portal, in the upper part of Bullock county, was taken out of his house Saturday night by a mob of five men, carried to the woods, whipped severely and then shot, from the effects of which he died soon afterward.

Before death came, however, he related to a number of white men and colored people the manner in which he was handled, and told the names of three of his assailants. They were, according to his statement, Perry Barnes, Henry Barnes and Westley Waler, all white men. The names of the others he did not seem to know. He said the men came to his house and hailed him at the door. When it was opened the men came in with guns and held his wife at bay while they carried him away. After they had been gone some time his wife heard several gun shots.

Some time in the night McBride returned to his house badly beaten and shot in the back in several places. Several of the white neighbors were notified and went to see the negro and took his testimony.
